Dear Marie,

I was surprised and shocked to learn of bon's death. He was such a joy to know, he was so full of laughter it is difficult to accept he is no longer with us, but we all accept God's will.
Those of us who have experienced a long and loving partner in life can give thanks for the many blessings found in a beautiful marriage. The months ahead will be difficult, but the memories you cherish will live forever.

Marie and Family:

Susan and I would like to extend our deepest sympathies . Nearly 32 years ago, Bob greeted me at Servus Corp. with a smile on his face and kindness in his heart. A few years later he greeted Susan with the same smile!
“A true American gentleman” I will treasure his advice and encouragement and we will forever miss and remember him.

BOB will be missed but never forgotten. A person who always had a smile on his face and a joke on his lips. He proudly served his country in the US Marine Corp and was an inspiration to all who knew him. May his sould rest in peace.

Bob,
When you were born, you cried and the world rejoiced. You lived your life in such a manner that now when you are not here the world cries and you rejoice... SEMPER FI.

Marie,
My heart aches when I think about your loss. Your husband was an amazing person to have around. I'm so lucky to have met him in mt life. Always remember "Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal". Love never dies. All I can say is, please take care of yourself.

Jim, Lisa and Nancy,
Although I know that no words can ease the loss you feel, just know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. When someone you love becomes a memory, the memory becomes a treasure, and God has blessed you with this Treasure of Bob's memories.
Jim, your loss is huge but keep faith and courage and stay strong.

Marie and family:

I was very sorry to hear the news of Bob's passing. I truly enjoyed my 9-years working with him at Servus Management Corp., and he was a big part of the team and the culture while I was there. To me he was a friend and a mentor, and he brought significant life experiences and knowledge to the company. In some ways I sometimes considered him the 'conscience' of the company. Although I didn't know him too much outside of work, he seemed like a great husband, father and family man. With my young family, I am hopeful that I can be as eternally energetic and enthusiastic with my family as he was with his.

Unfortunately I will miss the opportunity to 'say goodbye' tomorrow, as I would have liked to personally send my condolences to Marie, Jim, Lisa and the rest of his family.

Bob, you will be greatly missed by many.

Dear Marie,
My sympathy and love is extended to you and your family on the loss or your beloved Bob. I often smile upon seeing the wedding photo you shared when we had the Wedding Theme party at my house. I made it the cover photo for that album. You and Bob made a wonderful pair and have been very blessed. May God continue to comfort and bless you all, Barbara Pierce
