Mary McCullough Abrams

June 7, 2023

Mary (McCullough) Abrams, 91 passed away peacefully on June 7, 2023, at Saint Mary Home in West Hartford. Mary, a tenderhearted and gentle soul, was born on October 7, 1931 in Hartford, to the late Edward and Agnes McCullough.

Mary is survived by her four children, Kathleen (Steve) Papillo, Mary Beth (Tim) Spillane, Ann (David) Herzig and Robert (Lisa) Abrams, Jr.. She was Nana to twelve grandchildren and fourteen great grandchildren. Mary was predeceased by her husband Robert (Bob) Abrams, Sr. and her six siblings, Edward McCullough, Jr., Robert McCullough, Katherine Murphy, Ann Hennessey, Eileen Prendergast, and John McCullough. She also leaves several nieces and nephews.

Mary was a graduate of Bulkeley High School. She met and married Bob and they lovingly raised their four children in Windsor. After Bob’s passing in 1975 she eventually moved to West Hartford. Mary will be remembered for her kindness, wit, and style. Her devotion to family was unmatched. She took pleasure in attending Mass, listening to books on tape and shopping trips. Her family will truly miss her faithful love and support.

Mary’s family would like to extend heartfelt gratitude to the entire staff at Saint Mary Home and the hospice team from Trinity of New England at Home for their unwavering compassionate care.

The funeral will be Friday, June 16th beginning with calling hours from 9-10 am. in the Cathedral of St. Joseph, 140 Farmington Ave., Hartford. A Mass of Christian Burial will follow at 10:00 am. Burial will be in Mt. St. Benedict Cemetery, Bloomfield. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to The Mercy Community, Saint Mary Home online at https://donate.trinityhealthseniorcommunities.org/ Online expressions of sympathy may be made at www.molloyfuneralhome.com
