Millicent J. Callahan

February 4, 2016

Millicent J. Callahan, 88, beloved wife of William Callahan, of West Hartford, formerly of Bloomfield, died peacefully in her sleep on February 4, 2016. Millicent was a loving mother to Lauri Graziano and her husband Alex of Verona, NJ; and of Bill Callahan and his wife Carol of Billings, MT; adored grandparent of, BJ, Duncan, Thomas and JP. Born in North Attleboro, MA she lived her childhood years in various towns on Cape Cod. Millicent graduated from Framingham State in 1949 and taught home economics for 2 years. She loved her family, traveling and music and will be deeply missed. Funeral Services will be Monday, Feb. 8, beginning with visitation from 9-9:45 am, in St. Bernard's Church, 7 Maple St. Tariffville, CT. A Mass of Christian Burial will follow at 10:00 am in the Church. Burial will be in St. Bernard's Cemetery, Tariffville following the Mass. In lieu of flowers, donations in her memory may be made to St. Bernard's Cemetery Fund, 7 Maple St. Tariffville, CT 06081.

Cemetery Details

St. Bernard's Cemetery

Maple St.
Tarifville, CT

Previous Events

Calling Hours

FEB 8. 9:00 AM - 9:45 AM (ET)

St. Bernard's Church
7 Maple St.
Tariffville, CT

Mass of Christian Burial

FEB 8. 10:00 AM (ET)

St. Bernard's Church
7 Maple St.
Tariffville, CT

Tribute Wall

LJ

With deepest sympathy to Uncle Bill, Bill J. and family, and Lauri and family. I'll remember Aunt Mille's wonderful disposition, sense of humor and love for her family. She was always a pleasure to be around. Love, Linda Jarvis

Linda Jarvis - February 10, 2016 at 04:36 PM

KJ

I am very sad to hear of Aunt Mill's passing.
She was always a joy.
My memory is the wall of family pictures in her home.
We all loved her very much.
God bless the family during this time. it,s hard.
Love Kathy jarvis

kathy jarvis - February 09, 2016 at 09:30 AM

RA

Bill, Always, when I asked Wamp's old guard how you were doing, they would reply, you were "taking care of Milli". I remember Milli as a very sweet lady. Mostly I remember the two of you as inseparable--Milli and Billy. May your memories of Milli sustain you and your family through your loss. Know you are both remembered fondly by your Wampanoag friends.

Rich Arnold

Rich Arnold - February 08, 2016 at 07:33 AM

LO

My thoughts and prayers are with you, Bill and family. I was always so inspired by the love that you shared. Your love, care and concern was so noticeable even if I only observed it from the organ loft at beautiful St. Bernard's. I know that she is one of God's newest angels singing in the heavenly choir!

Lorie Orzechowski
Organist and Music Director at St. Bernard's Church

Lorie Orzechowski - February 07, 2016 at 01:34 PM