“ I had the pleasure of working with Emily at Hartford Hospital. She was kind and caring, always giving her patients the best care possible. I enjoyed conversations with her about her family and her pastimes. She always wore beautiful earrings that she bought when she was traveling, and loved talking about where she acquired them.

I am so saddened to hear that she has passed way too soon, please accept my deepest sympathy.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Emily at Hartford Hospital where she was first a nurse on the unit and then a lactation consultant. She had such a kind heart and a beautiful smile. She touched many lives. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ I was so sadden when I heard the world had lost Emily. I met Emily at Camp Asto Wamah, back in the late 60's. She had a twinkle in her eye, a big smile and distinct laughter...we had great times at Camp. Although our lives took different roads I knew of her many accomplishments and love for her family as my best friend is her cousin Terri. May your memories bring you comfort and know that she touched many people and will not be forgotten.

“ I grew up with Emily. We are the same age and spent many holidays together. Cathy and I stayed with aunt Claudia and Emily and Geoff several times when we were growing up. When Uncle Geoge died my father became a father figure for Emily and Geoff and our families grew very close. Before my father passed Emily was visited almost daily and helped make sure he was cared for properly. I will remember running Marathons together and shared time we spent in Maine. She was such a fun loving, caring person who was a great friend and cousin.

“ I was deeply saddened to hear the news from Jean Levine about the tragic loss of Emily. I always called her Greg and we were classmates at Vermont College. I was fortunate to have spent time with Greg over the years skiing in Utah and a very memorable V.C. reunion in Montpelier, Vermont.
My heart breaks for her family and friends. The loss is great and she will be missed by many.

Please accept my heartfelt condolences.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Emily, in 2013, through a mutual friend. Though we were strangers prior to meeting, we immediately found a bond through our shared interests of running and dogs! We communicated mostly via email, and, she would always send encouraging words about upcoming races, and, of course we would compare dog stories. She was a lovely, kind woman. You have my deepest condolences.
