

F. Owen Eagan

March 2, 2021

Francis Owen Eagan's greatest legacy will always be his love of family, his devotion to God and his passion for the law. He was called home by the Lord on March 2, 2021 surrounded by his family. With a warm smile and bright blue eyes, Owen was a loving husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, uncle, cousin, father-in-law, brother-in-law and friend. Owen was born on October 2, 1930 in Windsor, Connecticut, the son of Francis Joseph and Mazie Eagan, where he fondly remembered his years living and working with his family in the Windsor Hotel. A strong proponent of Jesuit education, he attended the Cranwell Preparatory School, Georgetown University, and the Georgetown University Law Center. His Georgetown class ring and his "Hoyas" hat were longtime fixtures of his wardrobe. On December 13, 1952 he married Joan (Mullaney) Eagan, his high school sweetheart. Owen leaves his children Mary Ann Eagan, Michael and GERALYN Eagan, Owen and Judy Eagan and Margie and Richard Waal. He was a devoted grandfather to Mike and Elizabeth, Kerry and Derrick, Kevin, Caley and Charlie, Maura and Nick, Owen, Aidan and Saige and great grandfather to Tyler, Conor, Shea, William and Tate. Owen leaves his two sisters Mary Eagan and Margie Tracey, his brother-in-law Sam Johnson and numerous nieces and nephews, his close family friend and longtime executive assistant, Sally Pascus and his faithful dog, Riley. "Gomp" as he was known to his grandchildren, attended all events; he could be seen clapping at dance recitals and cheering at football, hockey, lacrosse, soccer, volleyball, basketball, baseball games, tennis matches and track meets. A captain in the U.S. Air Force, Owen proudly served during the Korean War before attending law school. He had a true love of the law and served as a U.S. Magistrate Judge and was a quiet voice of reason for more than two decades from 1975 to 1996. Prior to serving on the federal bench, he served as a senior partner at Eagan, Jackson, O'Keefe & Murray, as an Assistant U.S. Attorney for the District of Connecticut and as an U.S. Attorney for the District of Connecticut. He also taught trial advocacy at Western New England School of Law. Following his retirement, Owen founded the Canterbury Resolution Center, a mediation firm and served as a judge on the Mohegan Tribe Gaming Disputes Court until the age of 85. Owen and his wife Joan were one of the founding couples of The Church of St. Timothy. Owen was predeceased by his wife, Joan, his sister-in-law, Elizabeth Mullaney Johnson, his brother-in-law, Jack

Tracey, and his nephew, Russ Jacobson. Owen's family would like to thank Eileen Clarke, a true angel, for her care, kindness and compassion during the final years of his life. His family would also like to thank the compassionate staff at Seniors Helping Seniors, Companions for Living, Companions & Homemakers, The staff at the McAuley and McLean Hospice care. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Tuesday, March 9, 2021, at 10:00 a.m. at The Church of St. Timothy, 1116 North Main Street, West Hartford, CT 06117. Please note Covid 19 mask and capacity restrictions will be in place. Burial will follow in Mt. St. Benedict Cemetery, Bloomfield. “ To all the Eagan's,

I was soooo sorry to hear about your Dads passing. What an icon in my eyes. Your family is just great and we, the Tyler's treasure our long standing friendships. Your Dad was a wonderful gentleman & now he joins your Mom (RIP) up in heaven.

When your last standing parent passes...I remember thinking...OMG...we're orphans now. Now more Mom & Dad...just us...Well...I've decided all of our long time friends will now be our new version of family to share memories and treasures of the past. So know this: we, the Tyler's are here for you. xxMarie

“ To the Eagan Family,

Our sympathy and condolences to you all. What a special man and a truly beautiful family.

I was fortunate enough to sign up for a Criminal Law course which he taught at Tunxis Community College in the late 1970's. He somehow saw potential in me that I did not see in myself, and he invited me to work with him in the Federal Court in Hartford as his deputy clerk. He and Sally took the time and energy to mentor me in everything I needed to be successful in my job and in my personal life. Although I never went on to law school, which was of course, his master plan, I do believe that my life would never have taken the beautiful, bountiful road that it did without his quiet, thoughtful, steady guidance.

The Eagan family has been so blessed to have such a wonderful man in their midst for so many years. He surely has a special place in heaven and will be deeply missed by many.

Our deepest sympathy,
Linda Kaine and Ed Martucci

“ As a newly married couple we arrived from N.J. to West Hartford 67 years ago and were warmly welcomed by Owen and Joan. This would have been a rather lonely place without their friendship. Our four children along with their four played and grew together into adulthood mirroring the many virtues of both Owen and Joan .
Prayerfully, Paul and Peggy Haas

“ When I applied for a position with the Office of the United States Attorney, Owen went to bat for me and helped me get a job. This was a turning point for me. As a federal prosecutor in Hartford. I appeared before him frequently. He was a judge's judge. He was professional, courteous and kind. He spoke in a calm, reassuring voice and was always courteous and respectful to everyone in his court. Whenever I was in his presence, I always knew I was in the presence of a rare and gentle spirit. He served as the model for a cover drawing by Norman Rockwell- dignified and calm. He brought his kind and beautiful spirit to everyone in his presence. Owen was a rare human being. I feel truly blessed to have had the honor to know him. — Doug Lavine

“ We were Blessed to have Uncle Owen in our lives. The goodness and wisdom we shall always remember and keep in our hearts. He made our family what it is today. He brought all that came in contact with him how a person should live and how to treat others. All were blessed to have known or dealt with him. It is a wonderful feeling to still have Owen looking over us all. Pj and The Fitzgerald Family

“ I was so sorry to learn of Judge Eagan's passing from Father Cody and Pat Dayner. I was very fortunate to have served many years ago as his second law student clerk. He taught me so much about law, but what I remember most about him was his great kindness and compassion. We have indeed lost a truly good man. My condolences to Owen and the Eagan family and also to Sally.

Our deepest condolences for your loss. Mr. Eagan was such a warm heart. I often recall conversations we had on the phone where he would always ask about me and my family with a genuine interest. “ Mary Ann, Michael, Owen, & Margie:
I was so sorry to learn of your father's passing. Over the years, I enjoyed my brief encounters with he and your mother, and will always remember that immediate smile on his face, when he saw me. I've been fortunate to have remained in contact with Owen (Judy), and Michael, and have always felt like I was a very small part of the Eagan family.
I'll always remember the nice time we had, when we went up to see Ned Guillette play (at BC), coaching Owen and Frank Pulito, and (of course) teaching Owen how not to run on his heels!
God Bless all of the Eagans, and thank you for letting me share in so many fond memories of your great family!

“ On behalf of the Northwest Catholic High School community, I offer my deepest sympathy on the passing of Judge F. Owen Eagan. Judge Eagan, along with his children and grandchildren, is a valued member of the Northwest Catholic community, so we mourn his loss along with all who love him. Please know that Judge Eagan and his entire family will be remembered in a special way at our next school-wide Mass. “ As a law student intern and, later, as a new lawyer, I had the privilege of participating in countless hearings and status conferences in Magistrate Eagan’s courtroom as he deftly handled the complex, multi-year class action litigation captioned CARC vs. Thorne. That was truly a landmark case, resulting in the closure of Mansfield Training School and ushering in major reforms in the way Connecticut responds to its citizens with intellectual and developmental disabilities. But, it was not easy going: the battles over adoption and implementation of the Consent Decree which formally settled the case were emotionally wrenching, replete with passionate testimony from family members, frontline workers, internationally recognized experts and people who, themselves, were receiving services through the State system. Counsel tables were crowded with well-known litigators from across the country – lawyers who represented seemingly irreconcilable interests and who made dramatic arguments and sharply questioned each other’s witnesses. Inevitably, Judge Eagan’s questions from the bench were the most astute. His calm, confident, deliberative demeanor, and the genuine respect he projected for all who appeared before him had as much to do with the successful resolution of the disputes that arose during the course of that litigation as did the legal merits of the various claims that were raised. He recognized what was at stake, and helped all involved to do the same. It was law at its best. When I think of the qualities that make for a good judge – a great judge – I think of F. Owen Eagan.

“ Dear Eagan Family,

Please accept my condolences on your loss. Like so many lawyers, I knew Judge Eagan first and foremost from the courtroom, and later as a mediator. I saw him work initially when I had the good fortune, like him, to serve as an AUSA. Later, I had cases before him as a private practitioner mediating for clients. It was always a pleasure to appear before Judge Eagan, no matter the unpleasantness of the case at hand. He was a true gentleman, always kind to both the citizens caught up in the system as well as the lawyers. He was fair and wise and a gift to the people of this State. Thanks to all of you for sharing him with us.

“ Magistrate Eagan was one of the kindest people I have ever had the privilege to know. I was his courtroom deputy in the mid-1980's and experienced first-hand his wisdom. He would playfully banter with me about Georgetown and American University, where I went to college in Washington, D.C. He encouraged me to move forward in life. My condolences to his family.
