

Irene "Jerri" La Mont

October 2, 2017

Irene R. La Mont, known to all as "Jerri," died peacefully on October 2, 2017 at her home in Farmington, just a month after her 100th birthday celebration. She was born in Milford, CT on September 4, 1917, the daughter of Albina Nagorski and Frank Pisarek.

Trained as a dental hygienist after graduating from Milford High School, she married Anthony La Mont in 1941 and moved to the Hartford area where she raised three girls, volunteered in their schools, and served on many boards, including The House Of The Good Shepherd and The Catholic Council For Women. After her children were grown, she entered the real estate field in which she worked for many years, first as a broker, then as an agent. She loved the business and made a multitude of close and long-cherished friends among fellow staff and clients. She was an avid reader and tennis player and had a rich, full life.

She is survived by her three daughters and their families; Sharon Charde and her husband John of Lakeville, CT, Susan McLellan and her husband James of West Hartford, CT, and Deborah La Mont of Unionville, CT, her grandson Matthew Charde and his wife Hedi, great grandsons Nick, Aidan and Max, all of Concord, MA, as well as her granddaughter Jaime McLellan of Richmond, VA. She was predeceased by her parents and three brothers, her former husband, and her grandson Geoffrey Charde.

The Molloy Funeral home is in charge of arrangements. A celebration of her life and funeral mass will be held on Saturday, October 14 at the Church of Saint Patrick, 110 Main St., Farmington at 12:30 with reception to follow.
