“ Irene was a wonderful, active woman. It was my honor and privilege to know her. I met her through our sorority alum group here in Hartford. She was always so kind and loved working with our group. Many thoughts and prayers to her family and friends. She will be missed. LITB Irene, LITB. Carolyn Abramo

“ My loving and happy thoughts of wonderful memories of Irene are with her and her family at this time as well as with her friends, one of which was a dear old friend of Irene, my Mom, Anne-Dillon Dalton. My mom and Irene have known each other since their days at Mount St. Joseph Academy. They were dear friends and spent many good times together, including working in real estate together and I worked with them and got to know her more. She was a true professional, always so full of life, very upbeat, witty and so bright, she was way ahead of her time in many ways and I always noticed that about her. We had some lovely day trips to watch the antique boat parade in Mystic, to see concerts with her and my Mom at Harkness and visit with her when we had our children. She and my Mom talked often on the phone for years. I remember calling my Mom and the phone was busy for a long time, that was because she was chatting with Irene, they loved to chat. She was a person who loved life and shared that love with others. It was sad when she lost her husband and her son at an early age, but now she is at peace, at home with them now and I am blessed to have known this special very good woman and to witness the beautiful friendship she and my Mom shared.

Love and prayers,

“ Irene was a lovely lady and I feel your loss. Our acquaintance goes back to mutual Hyde Road friends, Norfeldt school, our sons becoming professionals, and the friendship of my late husband, Rabbi Nathan Hershfield, with Reverend William Riley. Her memory will be for a blessing.

“ My family and I had the distinct pleasure to know Mrs. Riley. She helped me buy my first home in 1984 and the second in 1992. Although my family relocated to Atlanta in 1999, I made it a point to contact Mrs. Riley at least once a year when back visiting my family. Before the advent of the internet, she spent countless hours walking through multiples dozens of homes over many months. In the process she she met my parents, my fiance/wife and my three children. She was a woman of endless patience (at least with me), a wonderful story-teller and a friend.

Please accept the heartfelt condolences of Joseph D. Horan family on the loss of Irene.
