“ Wow. My oldest and dearest friend in Connecticut. Jim and I had so many common interests and such great conversations about them. He was kind and generous, and my wife Gail and I had many good times with him and his wife Dot. I'm going to miss him a lot.

“ Jim was a wonderful friend to all who knew him. I remember him as someone who always had a smile and something interesting or funny to say. My mother and her husband Larry were very close to him, and they have enjoyed countless hours sharing meals, attending events, and traveling with him. He will be deeply missed.
