

Joseph Paul Liss III

January 26, 2019

Joseph Paul Liss III died on Saturday, January 26, 2019. Joe was born on October 5, 1964 in Brookline, MA, grew up in West Hartford, CT and made his home in Suffield, CT. After graduating from Northwest Catholic in 1982 and the University of Connecticut in 1986, he used his natural charm and charisma in his sales career where he made lasting friendships throughout the years. Joe was married for 20 years to the love of his life, Carolyn Hennessey Liss. He loved their sons Brian and Owen with his heart and soul. They were not only the greatest gifts in his life, but also his most precious gift to the world he leaves behind. Joe loved his boys for the people they are and the men they will become. As the oldest of the five Liss siblings, Joey was thoughtful, loyal, dependable and courageous, but above all he was adored. Joey had the perfect joke for every occasion. Sometimes it was a "Dad" joke, sometimes it was dry and sometimes it was irreverent, but all were perfectly Joey. A gentle soul with a giant heart and a quiet generosity, Joey had a presence that was larger than life. He was a natural athlete with a passion for hockey and he shared his love of sports and sportsmanship with the many kids he coached throughout the years. Joe will be missed not only by his family, but also by his many lifelong friends. He left indelible footprints on all of our hearts and we are better and more compassionate people for having loved and been loved by him. Joe is survived by his wife Carolyn and their sons Brian and Owen of Suffield, CT; his sisters Eileen of South Boston, MA, Rori Sughrue and her husband Bill of Newtown, CT, Suzanne of San Francisco, CA and his brother Brian and his wife Chris of Granby, CT; his nieces and nephews Julia, Declan, Kiera and Elena Sughrue and Patrick, Brady and Molly Liss. He is also survived by his father Joseph P. Liss Jr. of Columbus, GA; his Aunt and Uncle John and Judy Collins, his Uncle Thomas Gilhooly, and his cousins Patricia, Eileen and MaryKay Gilhooly and Patricia, John and Michael Collins and their beautiful families. Joe was predeceased by his loving mother Kathleen Brady Liss, his Aunt Marie Gilhooly, his cousin Kevin Gilhooly and his maternal and paternal grandparents. His family will receive friends Friday, February 1 from 5-8 pm at The Church of St. Timothy, 1116 North Main St., West Hartford. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Saturday, February 2 at 10:00 am also at The Church of St. Timothy; Burial will follow at Mount St. Benedict Cemetery. “ My condolences to the entire Liss family. Joe was a fun-loving, energetic member of the NWCHS Class of 1982 and I have very fond memories of his youthful sense of humor and positive energy. He was a wonderful member of our class.

“ Eileen, Rory, Suzanne and Brian,

I am so sorry I was not able to get to Connecticut for the services for Joey. I love all of you guys and have such wonderful memories of spending time at your house, playing and watching over you. I want to share a reading with you that was shared with me when my dad passed.

Togetherness

Death is nothing at all. It does not count. I have only slipped away into the next room. Nothing has happened. Everything remains as it was. I am I and you are you, and the old life we lived so fondly together is untouched, unchanged. Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by my old familiar name. Speak of me in the easy way that you always did. Put no difference in your tone. Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together.

Play, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be ever the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without an effort, without the ghost of a shadow upon it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was. There is an absolute and unbroken continuity. Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just around the corner. All is well.

“ Dear Eileen, Rori, Suzanne, Brian, and Family
I am so deeply saddened to hear that Joe has passed on. It really doesn't seem possible. I have known the Liss family for many years, lived in the same neighborhood, attended the same church ( St Tims ), and enjoyed countless good times with many of you in my classroom and the athletic fields at Northwest Catholic HS. My memories of you and your late mother all are numerous and fond. " Big Brother " Joe was the first of you that I really got to spend time with. When Joe decided that he wanted to play football and came out for the team we bonded immediately. I was an assistant coach then and coached the line where Joe became one of " my guys". We spent every fall day together on the football field after school. I watched his skills develop to be sure but I also got a very nice glimpse of the man he would become in life. He was very dedicated, hard working, full of life, eager to learn, and demonstrated a sense of humor that won me over from our first practice together. He was a darn good player too. In time, as you all entered my life in one way or another, I saw some of Joe in each and every one of you. The Liss family has left a wonderful mark on my life. Please know that Joe and you all are in my thoughts and prayers as you go through this difficult time. I deeply regret that time and distance make it impossible for me to share these words with you in person. Sincerely, John C. Shukie NWC Retired - Baltimore MD.

“ Joey, at our last meeting in New Hampshire, was affable, lovable and a grand human being. The photos shared by his father are testimony of our fun time. We shared each other, Lake Winnepesaukee, good food, conversation and great family time. We, his Aunt Judy, Uncle Ronnie, spouses, cousins Ronnie Jr. and Georgie rallied in frivolity. We warmly welcomed a new member of the family, Deborah, Dr. Joe's wife. It was a memorable family gathering. In retrospect, years later, to deal with this untimely passing is not an easy task for this family. Joey, know you were loved and appreciated. We know you are now in the arms of God. Rest in peace.

“ The death of a son is so tragic an event that without faith in God and the hope of eternal life one can not comprehend this emotional devastation. "Our lifetime is but the passing of a shadow and our dying can not be deferred because it is fixed with a seal". Death reminds us that time is not renewable so we must not forget to cherish every moment we have with our loved ones.

The highest tribute to my son is not grief but gratitude. Gratitude for the person he was and what he strived to be; gratitude for the life he shared with others; gratitude for his devotion to his mother, siblings, wife and two sons; gratitude to those who called him friend; gratitude for being a complete and loving human being.

Your soul is now in the Lord's garden. "Rock", I love you dearly with my whole heart and I will miss you everyday of my life. Until we meet again my son.

Love,
Your Dad

“ We've been friends for forty-eight years,
Now I sit silently, eyes welling with tears.

I am broken inside that you had to depart.
I love you Joe, with all my heart.

I don't know what else to say.
I know that you are smiling alongside Kay.

All that we shared, I will surely miss.
A fond farewell to my dear friend, Joe Liss.
