“ Miss you, Laurie. “Lady” is well. I talk to her about you and she listens intently and purrs. I hope you know how much I admire(d) your intelligence, wisdom, determination, kindness, wit, goodness and loyalty. ‘You competed well, fought the good fight and kept the faith.’ Now you’re with God and at peace. ‘See you around’, dear pal.

“ I’m sorry I missed seeing Laurie’s obituary before the services. I worked with Laurie many years ago. She was a very dedicated person and wonderful with her clients. My deepest sympathy to all of her family. May she Rest In Peace.

“ I want to offer my condolences to all of you. Laurie and I went to Webster Hill, St. Brigid, and NWC together. She was a wonderful person, and while I haven't known her since she will be remembered for her thoughtfulness.

“ To Laurie's Family:
Laurie and I started at St. Brigid, together, and graduated from NWCHS, in 1967. We were in The Music Man (she, one of the Pick-A-Little women; and I did all the percussion work), and Sister Mary John (St. Brigid (remember her?)) was a favorite of ours.
I hadn't seen Laurie, since high school, but I'm sure she remained that same, nice person I got to know, all those years ago.
God bless all of you, in your sorrow, but take solace in feeling that I'm sure she's with the Good Lord, shining down upon you.
