“ My sympathy to the loved ones of Marjorie Hardge. I did not know her, but her brother, Rev. Arthur L. Hardge, and I were friends. We were jailed together as Freedom Riders in 1961. I recall him fondly, a man of great courage, a warm personality, and considerable humor. God bless all who mourn.

“ My sympathy to Marge's sister at this difficult time. I worked at Cigna in GISD Regional 7 with Marge and enjoyed her interesting travel recollections. I remember her as a kind and giving person who loved music. We exchanged Christmas cards long after our respective retirements and I always looked forward to her signature musical notes! She was a good person...may she rest in peace.

“ Marge & I worked together at Cigna. She sat at the desk next to me for almost 3 years & we shared a lot of laughs together. She even shared the gift of her beautiful voice by singing at my wedding 25 years ago. There are wonderful memories of her singing that we re-live each time we watch our wedding video. Even though we haven't worked together in years & years we continued to exchange Christmas cards each year. My family takes a photo card of our children & we send it with an annual newsletter. I ran into her a few years ago in West Hartford; & she told me that she loved getting the card & update every year. I will truly miss sending that card this year. She was a lovely lady & loved telling me stories of her family & travels. My deepest sympathies to her family at this difficult time. She will be missed.
