He was a champion of causes he cared about. As a leading member of Men of All Colors Together, he made lasting friendships. He loved art, music, fine food and wine and was a great cook. He was an avid reader who had a large eclectic assortment of books. He loved to hike and walk and often he would be the one to take a risky or challenging route. He climbed to the summit of Mt. Washington at the age of 69! Bill leaves three siblings, Bonnie Burns of Guilford, Andrew Burns of Hartford, and Thomas Burns and his wife Victoria of West Hartford. Cousins Regina Miolene of Stamford, Warren DeFrank in Florida and his brother Robert DeFrank and his wife Sue in Wisconsin, Sue Thompson of Wallingford, and Roger Salmon of West Haven.
