“ Dear Laurie and Jerry,
I have many fond memories of us at the beach and your mom cooking her special fried dough. Your mom taught me a great deal over those long ago years. She was very caring towards my mother and I appreciated that. I'm so very sorry for your loss.

“ Dear Laurie, Gerald and Family,
I always admired Adeline, so it was with great sorrow that I heard of her passing. She was a lovely lady.
I've known Adeline since our "Opera Days". When I formed the "Midas Touch" over 25 years ago, Adeline was one of the first to join. She was a dedicated member. She was hostess for many of our club's monthly meetings at Wampanaug C.C. and she planned the most wonderful luncheons. She usually had the Midas Touch Christmas Party which was always a festival - she had that certain touch! I know she'll be sorely missed and I think of her often.

With love and sympathy,
