“ I'm so sorry to hear of Aidan's passing. I was just walking in Anderson Park and I saw two benches dedicated to his memory. I didn't know. That is beautiful. We met Liam and Aidan and their wonderful parents when our daughter, Annie, was in Liam's class and the kids took swim lessons at the Montclair Y. Aidan must have been there, too (little brother), and I surely enjoyed seeing him many times around town with Don and Liam. What a handsome man I see in this photo. To his family, God bless. This loss will change you, I'm sure, just as Aidan's life did. May the angels watch over you all. Sincerely, Alice Hurley

“ Aidan and I met at the pool, this Spring, at our apartment complex. We shared many hours there and talked about all sorts of topics including the temperature of the water (which Aidan checked multiple times a day), the kinds of food we like (including favorite ice cream places); why his Red Sox are better than my Yankees, the rising cost of amenities in our rent, our families and what they were all doing. Aidan did not miss a day without a fun story about his Dad and his brother, Liam ("my best friend"). He clearly loved his Dad and Liam with his whole heart. The pool is not, and will never be, the same without you dear Aidan. I am going to check the water temperature for you everyday (78 today) and think of you everyday and how your smile and laugh were contagious and made me smile and laugh. Your kindness for others was weaved into everything you did. Thank you, Aidan, for being my pool friend, and I am so grateful to have had the privilege of getting to know you. Bonni Horwitz

“ I knew Aidan practically from the day he started college. His was an enormous spirit, with a huge laugh, a determined and striving nature -- always caring and kind and loving. It was a privilege to know him; it was a blessing to know him.

“ My heart goes out to Aidan's family. Aidan and I went to college together. I used to go to his roommates parties. Often, when the party died down at the end of the night, i would stay and hangout for a bit with Aidan, Reggie and his roommate Jack as well as a few others. Aidan would often tell me I was beautiful. And as someone who is very insecure, that was always really wonderful to hear. He was incredibly kindhearted and caring. Gone way too soon. I am so incredibly sorry to his family for his loss. Sending all my thoughts and love your way. Rest In Peace Aidan. Till we meet again.

“ To Aidan’s family. Aidan and I worked together at the Hartford Yard Goats. We had fun at the Main Gate and on the field Sundays when kids run the bases. I am so sorry for your loss. I will miss him.
