

Albert J. Tracy

February 23, 2010

Albert J. Tracy beloved husband, father, and grandfather entered into eternal rest on February 23, 2010. Albert was a native of West Hartford and served as a West Hartford firefighter for 25 years. Albert served during WWII with his 4 brothers: Edward, Joseph, Raymond and Jack. He received the WWII Victory Medal, Good Conduct Medal, American Campaign Medal, and European African Middle Eastern Campaign Medal. Albert, known as Bert , was the loving husband of Lucille Pfanensmith Tracy. He was the devoted and caring father of Glenn and Marguerite Tracy of West Hartford, Mark R. Tracy of East Hartford, Patricia T. Seaman of New Hartford, Mary and Kirk Jackson of Westbrook, and Donna and Michael Langer of Burlington. Bert took such pride and joy in his 12 grandchildren, Lauren and Tyler Tracy, Christopher and Michael Seaman, Zachary and Jacob Jackson, Timothy, Annie, Megan, and Kevin Tracy, and Thomas and Emma Langer. Albert was a communicant of St. Helena s Church, a member of the Veteran of Foreign Wars and the West Hartford Firefighters Association. He will live on through his grandchildren and will always hold a special spot in all our lives. His funeral services will be Friday, February 26 at 9:15 a.m. from the Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave., West Hartford with a Mass of Christian Burial at 10:00 a.m. in the Church of St. Helena, 30 Echo Lane. Burial will follow in the Forestville Cemetery in the Forestville section of Bristol. Calling hours will be Thursday from 4:00 to 7:00 pm at the funeral home.
