

Allyn Bell

March 17, 2009

Dr. Allyn Bell of Farmington, CT formerly of Cheshire passed away March 17, in Hartford Hospital. He was born in Hutchinson, MN, the son of Roy and Anstis Bell. He is survived by his wife Violet Walsh Bell of forty-four years.

Dr. Bell served in the Security Agency of the U.S. Army stationed in Berlin, Germany. He graduated from West Fargo High School, West Fargo, ND and from North Dakota State University with a Ph.D. in Agronomy. He was employed by the Chemtura Corporation formerly Uniroyal Chemical Company in New Product Research for 32 years where he retired as the manager of the Bethany CT operation. Prior to his management responsibilities, he headed up the crop protection research group where he developed over twenty patented products for Uniroyal.

Besides his wife, Dr. Bell is survived by his daughter, Patricia Kazarian son-in-law Peter of Sutton, MA, his son Michael daughter-in-law Kerry of West Hartford, CT and five grandchildren, Alexandra and Nicholas Kazarian, and Ryan, Kylie and Kate Bell. He is also survived by his brother, Loren Bell of Sibley, IA. Allyn enjoyed singing, symphony performances, traveling and experiencing new cultures as well as watching the Red Sox and Uconn basketball, but most of all watching his grandchildren participate in their many activities.

He was loved very much and will be deeply missed by his family and friends.

A funeral Mass will be held at St. Peter Claver Catholic Church, 47 Pleasant St., West Hartford, CT on Sat., March 21 at 11:30 a.m. There will be no calling hours. A private burial service will be held. Memorial contributions may be made to the charity of your choice
