

Amanda Angie Elliott

May 16, 2016

Amanda Angie Elliott, of West Hartford, passed away peacefully in her sleep after a long battle with cancer, early on May 16, 2016. Mandy was born in Independence, Missouri, to parents Brig and Patricia DeWitt Elliott. She graduated from Loomis Chaffee School, Middlebury College, and Paier College of Art, and was a visual artist of high talent as well as an accomplished interior designer. She is survived by her mother, sister Victoria, brother Chip, his wife Wu Sofai, and their daughter Kashi. Her family loves her deeply, and mourns her death. A private memorial service will be held at a later date.
