“ I just have to believe that there are "Tears in Heaven" over this. Jane and I send our deepest condolences to Nancy, Bill and hjs family and friends.

Andrew - thank you for your service to our country and to the cause of freedom. Thank you for wearing the uniform with pride and dignity. Thank you for the many quiet moments of courage and character which filled your military service and, I am quite certain, your entire life. Thank you for being a man of honor.

To my dear friends Nancy and Bill - and to those many who are effected by Andrew's passing - I pray that a loving and all powerful God will touch your hearts in this saddest moment and bring you a shred of peace amidst the heartbreak.

Nancy - I regret that I did not know Andrew personally. But I feel that I did know him by knowing you - but watching, with such respect and frequent amazement - at the strength of your life walk. By seeing the many many kindnesses you bestowed on so many of us over so many years - joyously and without a thought of personal benefit. By feeling the gift and amazing quality of your friendship - which has meant so much and been so beneficial to hundreds of people. By hearing you speak of your love and pride of the person Andrew was, is and always will be.

The world is a lonelier place for Andrew's having left it. May those of us fortunate enough to have been touched, even in the smallest ways, by his life exemplify in our own lives in the days ahead the principles which made his so distinctive.

“Feiner, you were one of the kindest most giving and loving souls i have ever met in my entire life. You were such an amazing friend to me, a best friend, who was always so gracious and so loving. I could always come to you, and you knew you could come to me. I will miss baking cupcakes and brownies, having talks in my backyard, watching silly movies at your place, and just laughing and listening to metal music. You will be carried with me forever in my heart, and i cant even convey how much you will be missed by me and all your other friends. My heart goes out to your family, i cant imagine the pain they must be experiencing right now. Somy and Lou are taking good care of Kat, and she will make it through this just like you would have wanted. I love you Feiner, I know you will be watching over us all, please rest in peace, and know that we all love you so dearly.

*Sincerely,
Britters*

“ Dear Nancy and family,

Andrew was my student in American Government at Tunxis Community College this semester. Even though I only knew him for a little more than a month, he touched my life and made his presence felt in the classroom. He was constantly smiling and always had an informed opinion on one issue or another. He was friendly with everyone and lit up the room by the sheer force of his personality. God bless him and your family.

“ Dear Nancy and family,

We are heart broken for you all over this tragic loss. We send you our love and prayers, and our sympathy. It was wonderful to meet Andrew (as an adult) in August. We will always remember his willingness to help his Grandma in her transition to move from her home of so many years to her new place, and I thought of it again when we received the email from Kathleen about Janet's new place. "What time do you need me, Grandma, I'll be here!" Love to you all from Bill & Kathy
