

Angela Carol Flammia

November 10, 2021

Angela Carol Flammia, 83, passed away on November 10, 2021 surrounded by her children and loved ones. She was born on March 31, 1938, in Torrington, the daughter of the late Frank and Adele (DeMedico) Albreada. Angela graduated from Torrington High School in 1956 and from the New York Polyclinic School of Radiology as the valedictorian of her class in 1958. She worked at St. Francis Hospital and Medical Center for 50 years, where she made beloved friends and met her future husband, Norbert Flammia. The pair were married in September of 1961 and lived in Thomaston until 1969, when they moved to West Hartford, where she lived happily for the rest of her life. She is survived by her four children, Dana Denault and her husband Brian of Simsbury, Mark Flammia and his fiancée Christina of Burlington, Lauren Yanosy and her husband James of West Hartford, and David Flammia and his wife Kelley of West Hartford; her grandchildren, Alexandria, Zachary and his wife, Harper, and Ashleigh Denault, Frank, Ana and Jena Flammia, Mia, Julia and Luke Yanosy, and Griffin, Grant, and Gwentyth Flammia. Other close surviving family members include daughter-in-law Christine Conte, and sisters-in-law Nancy Flammia and Cleo Albreada. She is also survived by several nieces, nephews, cousins, and many adored friends. She was predeceased by her husband, Norbert Flammia, her brothers Frank and Donald Albreada, her brother-in-law Frederick Flammia, and her sisters-in-law Rosalind Membrino and Eleanor Albreada. Angela was an avid reader and a talented seamstress, and closely followed the Boston Red Sox, the Dallas

Cowboys, and the men's and women's UConn basketball teams. Most importantly, Angela was a steadfast friend and a devoted mother and grandmother, who gave generously of her time and talents. She loved being "Nonna" to her twelve grandchildren, attending all of their sports games, concerts, recitals, and other events, and gave to each of them unique support and love. Angela was very proud of her Italian heritage and enjoyed making authentic Italian dishes, like risotto, polenta and (the best) meatballs for her entire family. She was a devout Catholic and was a member of St. Thomas the Apostle Church for over fifty years. Angela was cheerful, hardworking, and singularly kind, and her spirit will live on in all her loved ones. Family and friends are invited to celebrate her life at a Funeral Mass on Monday, November 15, 2021 at 11 a.m. at St. Thomas the Apostle Church, 872 Farmington Ave., West Hartford. Burial will be at a later date. Calling hours will be on Sunday, November 14, 2021 from 2-6 p.m. at the Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave., West Hartford. Memorial donations may be made to Francis J. and Donald G. Albreada UNICO Scholarship Fund, c/o Northwest Connecticut Community Foundation, 32 City Hall Ave., P.O. Box 1144, Torrington, CT 06790 or to The Office of Radio and TV at www.ORTV.org. “ My sincere and deepest condolences to Angela’s family and friends. I just was informed moments ago. Everyone should be lucky enough to have a neighbor who lived across the street like Angela. She was as warm, friendly, genuine and caring as they come. I will always remember and hold dear our conversations we used to have on Fern Street and her visits to our home to catch up with my mother. She was always there when you needed her. We loved being Italian. If I had one wish for her it would be that she be safely with Norbert and is in the arms of the angels. She deserves it. She was an angel and the best neighbor anyone could ask for.

“ Dear Flammia Family,

I want to extend my deepest sympathies to you all for Angela's passing.

Long ago, I had the privilege of working with Angela at St. Francis Hospital. She was a top-notch x-ray technician. She always established a wonderful repertoire with patients, putting them at ease, often as they faced difficult and challenging circumstances.

Angela was warmhearted and giving with a beautiful smile. She will be missed.

“ To our dear long-time neighbors and friends, the Flammia family: my deepest condolences and sympathy on the loss of the wonderful Angela Flammia. Angela, along with her husband Norbert, and their 4 children were our neighbors growing up, and we were so glad to have them just across the street. Angela and Norbert were good and supportive friends to my parents for decades, who always enjoyed spending time with the Flammias. Angela thoroughly enjoyed her children and grandchildren, and in later years, she spoke with love about spending time with her grandchildren as their beloved Nonna and being there for many important events and milestones in their lives. Angela had a lot of love to give and was always thinking of others, and her long career of important work caring for others at St. Francis positively impacted countless people. She always had a positive outlook on life, was devoted to her family, and will be missed by all who knew her and had the pleasure of spending time with her. I know her lasting legacy of love and caring for others will live on through her children, grandchildren, and beyond. She was truly a treasure, and brought her genuine interest in, and caring about, others to everyone she spent time with, including our family. We are thankful for her meaningful and important life, and for time we spent with her.

I wish Lauren (my childhood friend) and all the Flammia family peace and healing. Angela was a wonderful light who will continue to shine on through her family and friends.

“ To The Family of Angela Carol Flammia: I am so sorry for Angela's passing and the great loss for every member of your large and loving family, of which Angela was so proud. Her devotion to each of you, and her enthusiastic care-giving to her twelve grandchildren, speaks of her skilled and personalized recognition of each child's (and adult's) gifts, talents, and attributes. Her pride in and devotion to her work at St. Francis Hospital was remarkable. Her graduation status as Valedictorian is highly impressive. Her strength in the face of difficulties and challenges was formidable. I feel so honored to have known her, and will miss her loving presence.
