

Angela Mariani Lowenthal

November 23, 1927 - December 10, 2023

Angela Mariani Lowenthal, age 96, passed away peacefully in her sleep at LiveWell in Plantsville, CT, where she lived her remaining years. Ann was a beloved wife, mother, daughter, sister and aunt. She grew up in Caldwell, NJ, raised her family in East Hanover, NJ and moved to West Hartford, CT after her retirement in 1999. Ann's last place of employment before her retirement was at Borough Hall in the town of Madison, NJ. More recently, Ann was a member for many years in the early 2000's with Hadassah in West Hartford, CT.

She also enjoyed taking weekly walks in town with friends and thoroughly enjoyed attending school concerts of her 2 granddaughters and the Farmington Valley Symphony Orchestra, which her daughter Debbie Abraham and son in-law Robert Abraham performed.

Angela is predeceased by her father, Frank Mariani and mother, Julia (Ardizoni) Mariani, her late husband, Louis Lowenthal, her brother Leonardo Mariani and fraternal twin sister Frances (Mariani) Nowitzke Carroll.

Ann is survived by her brother Dante Mariani and sister in-law Betty (Fulton) Mariani of Neshanic Station, NJ, daughter, Debra (Lowenthal) Abraham of West Hartford, CT. Angela also leaves behind a son in-law Robert Abraham, of West Hartford, CT. She also leaves behind her grandchildren, Michelle Abraham Kantor and her husband, Timothy Kantor of Tucson, AZ, Jennifer

Abraham and her partner Matthew Scott of Wethersfield, CT, her Great-Grandson Leo Kantor of Tucson, AZ and many nieces and nephews too many to mention.
