

Ann Phillips

January 6, 2024

In loving memory of Ann Phillips, who blessed this world on November 5, 1938 and peacefully departed us on Saturday, January 6, 2024. Ann was a cherished mother, wife, daughter, grandmother, and friend who built a beautiful life and successful marketing career coming from Roanoke, VA. She touched the lives of many through her gracious demeanor the selfless way she shared her love and positive outlook against all odds. She absolutely adored her grandchildren Lindsay Simons, and Will Simons, and is also survived by her beloved daughter, Lori. The family will be doing a private memorial in her honor. May she rest in peace.
