The family of Ann Theresa (Uricchio) Tiernan, beloved wife and 66-year devoted wife and steadfast partner of Peter R. Tiernan has passed away at home after a valiant yet peaceful struggle against cancer. She was the youngest daughter of the late William and Mary (Donodio) Uricchio. Born and raised in Hartford's "Southend", Ann graduated from Bulkeley High School and entered the business world, as a claims agent at the former Phoenix Insurance Company. She and Peter were married in June 1958, and she remained at home until 1978 while raising their three children. Ann enjoyed 42 happy years on Cape Cod where family, friends and neighbors were often treated to her hospitality and where she embraced the seashore community, especially in summer and autumn months. She enjoyed entertaining and was a gracious hostess. She liked to travel and toured many European countries, as well as cruises to Caribbean and Canadian destinations. Dining out was always a special pursuit. She was a member of the former West Hartford Dames and a volunteer at The House of Bread in Hartford. Ann and friends from her early Grammer School years were in frequent contact with each other and enjoyed their luncheon outings at local restaurants. In addition to her husband, she is survived by her daughter MaryBeth (Matthew) Wabrek of Canaan, CT, by her son Philip (Carol) Tiernan of Windsor, CT and by her son James (Amy) Tiernan of Pawcatuck, CT. She leaves three grandchildren: Annalisa Deloy, Caitlin (Josh) Temko and Zachary (Pooja Singh) Smith. She was gifted with eight beautiful great grandchildren: Angelina, Brayden, Carter, Charlotte, Madelyn, Desmond, Julian, and Hunter. “ I am grateful to have been present in the home of this beautiful woman with her devoted family. To have been witness to her strength and courage. Her laughter as I shared a moment with her of her beloved husbands preparation of a hamburger. We giggled together as she asked how he had done and my reply that the kitchen was still intact. I am honored and privileged to have been called upon to be of service during this lovely woman's journey. Condolences to Peter, Jim, MaryBeth and Phil. To all the family I was honored to meet. Hugs to you all. Laura “ Ann was quite the woman and a spitfire when I knew her. I remember the looks she and I would share when no one else was looking. She was completely devoted to her family and welcomed me into her home many times. When she found out I loved butterflies she immediately gave me jewelry she had with butterflies on them. My heart goes out to the whole Tiernan family. May her memory be a blessing.

*Ann was a treasured friend and kind neighbor. She - and Peter - graciously welcomed us many years ago when we moved nearby. We always enjoyed the times we spent together, and Ann's humor and welcoming presence are already missed. We send heartfelt sympathy to her caring and much loved family.
