

Ann Malone Zangari

April 1, 2016

Ann Malone Zangari, of Ellington and until recently West Hartford, ended her courageous 20 year battle with Parkinson's disease on Friday, April 1, 2016. Born in Valley Stream, Long Island New York, she was 64 years old. She leaves her husband Nicholas Zangari of Ellington and four children who were her pride and joy, Alison Anderson of Roslindale, Massachusetts, Kathryn and Annie Zangari of Vernon and Jack Zangari of Bloomfield. She also leaves a grandchild, Henry Anderson, also of Roslindale, Massachusetts. She leaves two brothers, Harold Malone, Jr. of Valley Stream, L.I. New York and John Malone of Whitehorse Station, New Jersey. She was predeceased by her father Harold Malone, Sr. and mother Marie Malone, both of Valley Stream, L.I. New York. Annie (as she liked to be called) had a passion for writing, having written the hopeful book about coping with Parkinson's A Gift Silently Given. She held a Bachelor's Degree from the University of Dayton and a Master's Degree in Theological Studies from Harvard University. She was known for her smile and positive attitude despite the problems and suffering presented by Parkinson's. She made friends everywhere she went. Annie loved to dance, visit Jones Beach on Long Island, and have long conversations and laughter over coffee. She will be missed greatly. Calling hours will be Tuesday (April 5th) from 4-7 p.m. at the Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave., West Hartford. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Wednesday (April 6th) at 10:00 a.m. in the Church of St. Timothy, 1116 North Main St., West Hartford. Burial will be private. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the Michael J. Fox Foundation, Po Box 5014, Hagerstown, MD 21741-5014. Directions and online expressions of sympathy may be made at www.molloyfuneralhome.com

“ Nick & Family, As a slightly younger cousin, I always looked up to Ann for her delightful, fun loving spirit, and more recently for her most incredible spirit. She gives us such an example to follow. We send our love to the family and friends. We will all miss Ann but remember her so fondly. God was great to bless us with such an amazing soul. Greatest sympathy, Ann & John Brueck
