“ Dear Hunter family,
I am so sorry for your loss. I know that at first it may be hard to cope, but what has helped me in times past are the Bible's promises. For instance, Acts chapter twenty-four, verse 15 reveals that there will, “be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.” I love that scripture because it gives us hope that we can see all of our loved ones that we have lost in death once more. It may seem too good to be true, but God's word is focused on telling us how this and other Bible prophecies will come true. These promises reveal that God cares for mankind and plans on getting rid of tragedies we now face. There are many more promises in the Bible that can encourage us, but I hope this brief scripture helped you as much as it has me.
With sympathy,
Candace##imported-begin##Candace Trammell##imported-end##

“ To the family of Ann Hunter,
We send our condolences to all of you for the passing of your mother. I used to love listening to her talk and laugh with that Irish accent. She definitely had a long and strong life. I think about all of you often. ##imported-begin##Crowley, MarilynReilly##imported-end##
