

Anna Louise Stahl

June 21, 2004

Anna Louise Easton Stahl, age 78, died June 21, 2004 in Naples after a long illness.

Anna moved with her husband Raymond W. Stahl in 1988 from her home in West Hartford, CT. Anna Lou graduated in 1946 from Nursing School of Mercy Hospital in Pittsburgh, PA. She married her high school sweet heart Raymond and bore twin sons, one died five days after birth the other became her devoted son William K. Stahl. William married Karin Stahl; their only child Kristina Ann predeceased them. Anna Lou was always much involved in Church activity as well as raising Bill. Later in life she became a passionate bridge player. After many years of striving she was recognized by the American Contract Bridge League as a Life Master. She had two brothers; George Raymond Easton deceased, and David Easton of Newton Falls, OH. Anna was a member of United Church of Christ, Naples. Services will be held Thursday June 24, beginning with visitation at 12 p.m. followed by funeral services at 1 p.m. at the Molloy Funeral Home 906 Farmington Ave. West Hartford, with the Reverend Peter Grandy officiating. Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery, Farmington. Donations in her memory may be made to the Alzheimer Support Network 660 Tamiami Trail Road #21 Naples, Florida 34102; or Hospice of Naples Inc. 1095 Whippoorwill Lane, Naples Florida 34105.

Tribute Wall

“ Dear Ray & Bill

Its been a little over 3 years that I have known you and cared for Anna Lou. I hope that by caring for Anna Lou I have helped ease your pain. I hope she is finally at peace and with Kristina. Though it was a long journey, I am sure she is happy now and watching over us all. I will miss her very much, and although it hurts all of us that loved her, I know her suffering is over.

Don't worry Ana Lou, I will watch over Ray for you and help him through these difficult times; until you are both together again.

Love you!

Your favorite nurse,

Connie###imported-begin###Connie O'Connor###imported-end##

June 24, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Ray;We are so sorry, we will not be able to attend the Services for Anna Lou this Thursday. However, you know happy memories and caring thoughts are with you, Karin and Bill. Sincerely, Ken and Debbie Kaynor###imported-begin###Ken and Debbie Kaynor###imported-end##

June 23, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Mr.StahlRay,

I am deeply sorry to hear about your wife.I know how much you loved and cherished her,but now you have wonderful memories of your beautiful wife.Please know that she will forever and always be with you in your heart.With love,Tara###imported-begin###Tara Marrs###imported-end##

June 23, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Karin & Bill- Please accept my deepest sympathies over the death of Anna Lou. I will always have memories of her from Flagg Rd. church- especially workshops for church fairs- she was always a delight to be around and her presence was missed when they moved to Fla. May fond memories help you through this. Most sincerely, Linda Ward##imported-begin##Linda Ward##imported-end##

June 22, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Ray,
I am sorry to hear of Anna Lou's death. Though death is never a blessing, both of you are now at peace, and you have my admiration for all you did to comfort her in these recent years. My thoughts are with you at this difficult time. Your efforts and dedication will be remembered with fondness when your friends in the Men's Support Group meet this Friday.
Tom##imported-begin##Tom Menaker##imported-end##

June 22, 2004 at 12:00 AM