

Anna Rudko

August 12, 1924 - January 25, 2016

Anna Rudko passed away on Monday, January 25th, 2016, at her home in Colchester, CT. Born on August 12, 1924, in Luhansk, Ukraine, Anna was a survivor of Holodomor before taken to Germany at the age of 17. In Germany, she met her husband, Peter, and started their family before moving to the United States in 1955. Known to many as Baba, Anna was an avid gardener, who looked forward to spring so that she could tend to her beloved tomatoes, potatoes, and other produce. Moreover, she loved bringing her family together with her cooking, whether it was her classic Ukrainian Borscht or her homemade pizza. She found joy in having all of her family gathered on her deck, where they could share stories and laughter. She is survived by her son, Ihor Rudko, and his wife, Natalia, of Colchester, CT; her eldest grandson, Taras Rudko, his wife, Marli, and their daughter, Arianna, of Colchester, CT; her youngest grandson, Andrij Rudko, his wife, Sunny, and their children, Santino, Andrij, and Dominica, of Colts Neck, NJ; and her granddaughter, Motria (Rudko) Grasing, and her husband Robert, of Broomfield, CO. Anna was predeceased by her husband, Peter, and daughter, Lesia. Calling hours will be from 4:00 to 7:00 PM, with Panachyda at 6:45 PM, on Thursday, January 28, 2016, at Maple Hill Chapels/Talarski Funeral Home located at Molloy Funeral Home 906 Farmington Avenue, West Hartford, CT. Funeral will be held at 11:00 AM on Friday, January 29, 2016, at Saint Michael's Ukrainian Catholic Church located at 135 Wethersfield Avenue, Hartford, CT. Burial will follow in St. Michael's Cemetery, Glastonbury.

“ I will always remember Pani Rudko & my mother sitting in our living room in Farmington, the day after Ulya's & Ingo's wedding. Even though they did not know each other for a long time, they had a great time talking about their lives. It was as if they had known each other forever. Pani Rudko, like my mother went through horrific times in her late teens and early adult years. Yet, despite this, she remained a loving and giving person. I can still see these two beautiful and dignified women who did not let the unexpected and uncontrollable events that shaped their lives knock them down. Here's to gutsy, strong & loving women! Vichnaya Pamyat!

O Christ, with the saints, grant rest to the soul of your servant, the they may repose in a place where there is no pain, no grief, no sighing, but everlasting life.

For You, O Christ our God, are the resurrection, the life, and the eternal repose and we give glory to You, together with Your eternal Father and Your most holy, good and life-giving Spirit; now and for ages to ages.

Amen

May Anna Rudko be enjoying eternal life with our Lord, God.
