“ My condolences to Bob, Sue and Rich. Ann was like my second mom while I was growing up! She was always incredibly welcoming. Incredibly patient with everything that Rich and I got into. She also made the world's best potroast!! I have many great memories of her over the years!! Jim Slesinski

“ Dear Bobby and family, On behalf (and personally) of the Hall Class of 70 Reunion Committee, we wish to extend our extreme sympathy on your mom's passing. We are hoping in time your sorrow will be replaced by wonderful memories. Many of our classmates remember when your dad passed. How blessed you were to have 2 loving parents who made a difference in this world. With sincerest sympathy, Nancy, Sandra, Sue and Rich.

“ Bobby, Susan and Richard,
Our thoughts and hearts are with you during this emotional time with the passing of your beloved mother. She was a beautiful, kind soul who shared an amazing love and partnership with her late father, Bob. Your parents were fiercely proud of all three of you. They instilled such outstanding qualities in each of you...their legacy. Take time to grieve, feel your feelings, cry, laugh, tell stories, and hold one another close.
With deepest sympathy and love,
Suzi and Frank (Coach) D'Annolfo
