“ I was sadden to read of Anne's death. Although I had not seen her for many years, I saw her about three years ago at the mall. There was no question that it was Anne who stood before me. She had never changed - still as lovely as ever.

Anne and my mother, June Lautner, worked together in the 1950s for Drs. Goff and Hanna at their office at 30 Farmington Avenue. When I was a young girl, I would often come to the office after school where Anne and my Mom worked. They became good friends both at work and beyond. Anne was always an elegant lovely woman and a joy to know. I wish her peace in her new home in heaven which she so deservedly earned.
