

Anthony Floyd Little

January 27, 2025

Anthony Floyd Little, of Hartford, passed away on January 27, 2025, in New London. He was known for his eccentric personality and deep love of nature. An avid outdoorsman, he spent as much time as he could outside, camping, fishing, and appreciating the world around him. He was also an artist who cared deeply for his community and expressed himself through his creativity.

Anthony was a man of contrasts—one who could be vibrant, passionate, and full of life, but also someone who carried deep wounds that shaped him in complicated ways. His journey was not always easy, and his relationships reflected both the love he was capable of and the struggles he endured.

He is survived by his daughter, Toni Little Jackson; son-in-law Sy Jackson and grandson Ezekiel Jackson. Siblings: Germaine Coleman, Tanya Wilson, Lamont Little, Mattlyn Rodriguez, Janice Wallace. As well as many nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews. And many friends who became like family.

He is predeceased by his mother Elaine Jackson, father Sam Little jr. and siblings: Margo Jackson, Armintha (Amy) Maragh, Belinda Texidor, Doreen Henry and Steven Little.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date. Those interested in honoring his memory are welcome to contact the family for details.
