

Antoinette M. Ramenda

May 24, 2008

Antoinette M Ramenda, 92, passed away peacefully on May 24, 2008 in West Hartford. She was a graduate of St. Joseph College and studied music at The Hartt School. During World War II, she served as a Lieutenant in the United States Navy and was stationed in Newport and Washington, D.C. Ann was an enthusiastic member of the Hartford Bridge Club and an avid golfer. She was a member of the St. Thomas the Apostle Women's Circle and was active in many areas of the parish and school. She also was an active volunteer for the Democratic Party in local elections. An accomplished pianist, she often contributed her musical skills to the various organizations in which she took part. She took her greatest joy in her children and her grandchildren, for whom she had boundless love. She is remembered by all for her loving nature, sense of humor, and great personal strength that saw her through her long life. Ann was the widow of the late Atty. Henry Ramenda. They lived in West Harford where they raised three children, Susan M. Clarke married to Paul F. Clarke, Joseph T. Ramenda and James Ramenda. They had five grandchildren including three grandsons, Matthew, Brian and Christopher, the sons of Joseph T. Ramenda and his wife, Deborah, and two granddaughters, Rachel and Nicole, the daughters of James Ramenda and his wife, Tamara. Ann was predeceased by her sister, Mary Palazzi, and her brothers, Michael Marzano and Godfrey Marzano.

A funeral Mass of Christian Burial will be held at St. Thomas the Apostle Church 872 Farmington Ave. West Hartford at 10:00 a.m. on Thursday, May 29, 2008. Burial will be private. Visiting hours will be 3:00 to 7:00 p.m. at Molloy Funeral Home 906 Farmington Ave. West Hartford on Wednesday May 28th.