

Barbara Ann Conway (Prior) (Brickley)

August 21, 2021

Barbara Ann (Prior) (Brickley) Conway, 92, formerly of West Hartford CT; passed peacefully on Saturday, August 21, 2021 at the UConn Health Center in Farmington, CT. Born in Providence, RI on June 15th 1929, the daughter of the late Lawrence Burns Prior and Anna Theresa (Kneiss) Prior, she had been a resident of West Hartford, living at Brookdale Chatfield. She is predeceased by her husband John F. Conway of West Hartford, CT.

Barbara was an independent and self-motivated person. That led her to a career as a Real Estate Broker specializing in new home construction for many years. She was one of the first brokers to sell a condominium complex in Connecticut. She was the former V.P. of Sales for I.R. Stich Associates and also represented Rocky Hill Enterprises in later years. Barbara helped many families purchase a new home or condominium throughout the greater Hartford area helping them achieve a better life. A truly successful business woman at a time when it was uncommon. Known for her sunny smile and outgoing personality she was one of the most unselfish people you could meet. A wonderful mother and grandmother her love, wisdom, insight and guidance will be sorely missed.

A graduate of Blessed Sacrament School, she was also a long time member of St. Thomas the Apostle parish and strongly believed in her Catholic faith. She was a former member of the West Hartford Music & Arts club.

Barbara is survived by her son, Arthur W. Brickley and his wife Mary of Bloomfield, CT; her three grandsons and three great-grandchildren: John Brickley and his wife Jennifer of Southington, CT and their daughter Violet; Kevin Brickley and his wife Paetra of Toronto, Canada and their children Aurora and Arthur; and Michael Brickley of Bloomfield, CT.

I would like to personally thank the staff of Brookdale Chatfield and UConn Hospital for their kindness, treatment and support during my mother's care. Calling hours will be on Thursday, August 26th from 9:30 AM to 10:30 AM at the Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave., West Hartford, CT. “ Arthur, Mary, children and grandchildren
I remember first meeting Barbara in early 1973 at the newly constructed Greenbriar Condominiums in Farmington where she was the V.P. of Sales for I R Stich Associates.
I was impressed by her knowledge of new construction and her marketing skills that I purchased a unit overlooking Dunning Lake. We became friends and she attended my wedding in late 1973. I would see her at real estate functions, Christmas parties and at mass at St. Thomas The Apostle Church with her husband Jim. Her warm personality and smile made her a joy to reminisce with. She would ask about my children and brag about her son, of course, and his family. I wish there were more Barbara Conways in the world.
