

Barbara Kathryn Doud

June 13, 1955 - January 6, 2013

Barbara Kathryn Doud, 57, the daughter of Wallace Doud and the late Marjorie (Fenton) Doud, died Sunday Jan. 6, 2013 at her home in West Hartford. Born in Endicott, NY, she was a graduate of the New Hampton School in New Hampton, NH. She is survived by her father Wallace Doud and step-mother Jean Doud of Vero Beach, FL, and her siblings: Dr. Forrest Doud and his wife Dara of Conyers, GA, Mira Doud and her partner Norinne Powers of Eugene, OR, Margaret Doud of Wilton, CT, Melissa Freeman and her husband Chris of Tybee Island, GA, Michael Doud of Buchanan, NY, Katryn Doud of Bridgeport, CT, Barbara's longtime companion Graham Symons and numerous nieces and nephews. Barbara worked for Bob Kelly Florist delivering flowers, a smile, and comfort to patients at Hartford Hospital for 15 years. "I have the best job in the world," Barbara used to say. "Everyone loves the flower girl!" And everyone did.

A service of burial and remembrance will be held this spring in Westchester County, New York in the spring.
