“ Memories of Beacon Street in Hartford come to mind when I was very young. It seemed like that house went on forever. Levels and doors that slid inside the wall. It was a kids dream to explore it every time I was there. Aunt Barbara's award winning cookies! Uncle Eddie and his Caddy! My father and him in competition to see who could have the nicest one. Aunt Barbara was amazing. I have No idea how she kept her composure considering all the adversity and misery she carried on her shoulders in the early years when Uncle Eddie had the furniture store. She was an inspiration to me and I thought of her tribulations whenever my life got tough and tenacious. I regret never taking the initiative to tell her how I felt. Godspeed Aunt Barbara we ALL loved you so!

“ Barbara was my stepmother from the time I was 9 years old. I spent many weekends with them and at one point lived with my father and Barbara. There are so many memories that I can't even list them all. On the weekends the house was always full with company and Barbara always made everyone welcome, had good food for everyone and created many many great memories. I thank her for that. Sylvia

“ I remember going to Grandpy and Barbara's house on Beacon Street...Jiggy the Boxer, front porch, big Cadillac, apartment on the 3rd floor, wooden pocket doors, fireplace mantle, the big garage in the backyard, family meals in the dinning room and allot of ❤️!

RIP Barbara and thank you for the memories and being in our family!
