“ Dear John, Kendall, Jay, Chris, Andy, Jacqueline, Beverly, and Elizabeth,

I remember Barbara as a mother to us all when we visited. These are memories through my child eye perhaps 7-8 years old... I see Barbara carrying in comfort in the form of a towering plate of sandwiches for 12 laughing raucous kids in in your West Hartford "mansion". Barbara probably had no idea that she was soothing a 7 year old boys wild imagination with sandwiches after he was just convinced, probably by an older Stone boy, that the Boston Strangler had actually used some of their hidden passage closets to escape the police! And many other great play memories when life was somehow more in the moment. Love, Childhood friend,

Rick Donahue. Married to Amy, with children Emma 14, Kagan 11, Mira 22 mos.##imported-begin##Rick Donahue##imported-end##

“ Dear John and family members: I spoke with my dad last evening and he was greatly saddened by the news of Barbara's passing. He admired Barbara and John tremendously. He wishes he could travel to West Hartford to attend the burial, but mom's physical capacity is limited and dad is mom's primary "nurse" and he isn't able to get away. I didn't know your mom and dad all that well, but my father and mother thought so highly of both and dad realizes how devastating your mom's death is to you and your dad. Our prayers are with you and those who will miss Barbara's love and caring heart. Pass our love and sympathy to all; especially your dad.

“ It was a honor to know Barbara and I appreciate everything she did for me. She was a woman of principle and integrity, who always did the right, just and kind thing instinctively. Although she was not famous, she should be considered a role model for us all. She will live on in her wonderful family, her greatest gift to the world. Love,
