“ The Shannon, Helen, Grace and Family:

It is so difficult to lose a family member especialy one that you all were very close to. It saddens me to thinks about how much you will miss Belinda Mom and Grandmother My only hope is that you can remember the good times, the laughs, the family get togethers, the private talks and the times you spent just hanging out, being together. She is looking down on all of you with hopes that you can all be strong for one another. She will always be with you in your day to day lives and your dreams. Be strong and remember that there are many people that are here to love and support you through this very hard time. “ With open arms and a big heart, Belinda opened her home to our family in time of need, as generosity and helping others was very important to her. Belinda was an incredible strong, independent, intelligent, and beautiful woman inside and out who should be admired and deeply deeply missed. Our prayers and thoughts are only of the Sullivan's at this time of great sorrow. Belinda- We will miss you very very much..
