“ Nana was a wonderful grandmother to me and I am lucky to have had her in my life. I admired her work ethic and her strength and grace in fighting a devastating illness up until the very end. My fondest memories of Nana will be the time that I spent traveling with her: to Hawaii - where she was so thrilled with the sunshine that she burned herself to a crisp, and to Italy ? where she took in all the sights with wide eyed wonder. I also loved helping her celebrate Mother?s Day at one of her favorite haunts -- Ruth?s Chris, and can?t help but smile when I think of her in her uniform of a track suit and ?joggers.? Nana?s greatest legacy, of course, will be the family that she?s left behind: the impossibly thoughtful mother that she gave me, along with the many caring aunts and uncles who are such an important part of my life.###imported-begin##Catherine Tompkins###imported-end##
