“ I'm smiling right now thinking of Mrs. Pierce, my 7th and 8th grade math teacher at Sedgwick Jr. High in West Hartford. She was a wonderful teacher, and even though math was my most difficult subject, I enjoyed her classes. She was always there for "before school help." One time I asked her how she could stand her job, and she said, "I enjoy this age." She was great. My condolences to the family of Mrs. Pierce.
