“ Dear Omeara Family.

I'm sending my deepest condolences for your lost. Currently, I'm in Malaysia and just found out about him passing away on my birthday via internet.

He was the most loyal client i've ever had, when i was living in CT the funny thing about him is that he would follow me to each bank that i had worked for and would recommend people to me.

I'm Deeply sadded because he was the most wonderful person, very kind and genuine. He was not just a friend and he also like a family to me. He will never be forgotten by who ever he encountered and hopefully his legend will be followed.

He will be missed,

“ To the O'Meara family,
As we get older many of us think about our legacy. Very few of us will be able to match Brian's. He was kind and generous to everyone, and gave much to the community. He, with Marianne, raised two children who are successful in their own right. That is perhaps the greatest legacy.
Please accept my heartfelt condolences,

“ Brian was a wonderful, kind friend to everyone he met. He truly loved his family and his dear mother. I worked for him briefly at the Capital Fish restaurant and Brian was the one person I will never forget. His generosity, kindness, thoughtfulness and little boy sweetness filled a room. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. Know that you are in my prayers. Everyone who could call him "friend" was better for having met him. “ To the O&rsquo;Meara family, my heart and prayers go out to you in this time of loss. My friendship with Brian began over twenty years ago when I moved to the area. Brian was always larger than life and would brighten the lives of everyone he encountered. I&rsquo;ve learned a lot of life lessons from Brian over the years. A man like Brian truly never passes away but rather he lives on in the fond memories of the people whose lives he touched.##imported-begin##George Cavedon##imported-end##

“ I first met Brian while hanging some really kooky Christmas decorations from the ceiling of Capitol Fish. “ I was surprised to read of Brian's passing. He was always so full of laughter that it's hard to think of him any other way.

I especially enjoyed our time together on the Town Council. I often kidded him that he was less interested in the town budget and more interested in riding shotgun in a cruiser.

I regret I won't be there to express my condolences in person. I haven't seen him in the last few years, but he was always one of my favorites in my political career##imported-begin##Arthur
