“ Dear Mary, Kathleen, Sheila, Rita, Tommy, Stephen and Kevin and all of your families - We are with you in thought and prayers these days and feel sad at the passing of Aunt Bridie. She was always such a beautiful, loving lady and had a smile for everyone. We have many fond memories of her and Uncle Jack's visits to our home on Chester Street. Your Mom had a gentle way about her which endeared her to us all. I'm Mary here visiting Carmel and am so sorry I won't be attending the services. We will all be thinking of you and sending our prayers. God Bless.
