There will be no formal service, but a Celebration of Life will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers please donate to the foundation of your choice. He loved reading the stories of everyone's interesting lives in the obituaries. This is his last. His humor and emails about "stuff" will be missed. “ I am so sorry for your loss. His roses cheeks, big smile, laugh and ‘emails of stuff’ will be missed. He always made me feel like one of the kids. I loved his stories of Maine, fishing, decks, and generally interesting life interactions. My favorite time was when he retired to become ‘book boy’ and just how much he adored retail consumer interactions. Lol!! I know his strength carried him to this point and I am glad he will no longer have to struggle. May he rest in a better place and you cherish the memories. Love you all. Colleen

Bill and I are so very sorry to hear of the passing of Fred.

It has been many years, since we have seen you both, but certainly remember the occasions we shared when our children were younger.

Fred had a great sense of humor, and anyone who knew him, could immediately tell he was a kind, gentle giant of a man!

Wishing you and your family, peace and comfort, during this difficult time.

Our deepest sympathies,

MaryLou and Bill

RIP, Fred
