“ My sincerest condolences to Carolyn's family. We became good friends when we were in the same band in college. We remained good friends until the early 90s when we gradually drifted apart. Carolyn was smart and loved to laugh. She was truly a good person. I keep remembering her laugh as I write this. I remember when she called me up in the mid-90s after we hadn't seen each other in a few years to excitedly tell me about the guitar lessons she was just starting and the daughter she had. I am sad that she is gone, but I will treasure our friendship always.

“ Sarah, Brian Christopher & Claire - your mom loved you all very much. She talked about you often. You were all her #1 priority. I had the pleasure of working with Carolyn and we enjoyed each others company very much and most of our conversations were about our kids and family. I loved that she had different interests She was very sweet and would help out any one in need. Hold on to all the great memories of your mom and know that she will always be watching over you.

“ Dear Sarah, Brian, Christopher, Claire and Andy,
We are deeply saddened to hear of your mom's unexpected death. There are no words that will make it any easier but we would like to share a few thoughts. William remembers how Carolyn welcomed him into your home and how supportive she was about "the band" in 5th grade. I will remember Carolyn as an true individual- a one-of-a-kind. I admire how she was her own person and how she pursued her interests and passions. I know that you,her beloved, children were her #1 priority and that she loved you all very much. We will keep you all in our prayers.##imported-begin##Kitty , Duke, Will, Tom Colleen, Annie and Christine Horigan##imported-end##
