

Catherine M. Pray

July 10, 1969 - January 19, 2006

Catherine M. Wallace Pray, 36, the wife of Devin Pray, died Thursday January 19, 2006 at Hartford Hospital. Born in Warwick, RI, the daughter of the late Lawrence and Faith Joyal Wallace, she had made her home in Farmington the past 6 years, moving here from Coventry, RI. She attended Coventry High School and was a graduate of the Community College of Rhode Island, Class of 1997. ?Cathe? was an avid reader with a great thirst for knowledge, a collector and an artist. She was unique and wonderful woman with the heart of a child. Her family and her pets were her greatest love. In addition to her husband Devin, she is survived by her five children; Erin Vick and Kenneth ? Rocky? Vick of Woonsocket, RI; Adam Duquette, twin daughters Kira and Tedra Vick all of Farmington. Her grandmother Betty Joyal of Coventry, RI also survives her. A memorial gathering to celebrate her life will be held Thursday Jan. 26th from 7-9 pm at the Molloy Funeral Home 906 Farmington Ave. West Hartford, CT 06119. Interment will be in Rhode Island. Online expressions of sympathy may be made at www.molloyfuneralhome.com

“ I remember many fond childhood memories of Cathe. We lived near each other, and rode the bus together often sitting side by side. I myself have 5 children now and feel so sorry for her childrens loss. Just know that my thoughts are with the family at this time. I know that she is in a wonderful place, and I hope someday we will meet again in heaven.##imported-begin##sherry durfee##imported-end##

“ *Though we have always been cousins,
Little did I know of you,
But my greatest desire as you pass on ,
Is to pass on to Heaven so blue.
When it is my time to pass on,
I only desire the same,
Dear Muffin: I know God was calling,
So sweetly calling your name.
I will not cry in deep sorrow, mourning your passing on,
Instead I will sing with the angels,
For a crown now your head will don.
I will also one day be in heaven, and there I know we will be,
united in family in more ways than one,
and for eternity.*

God Bless You and I pray that God will always wrap his arms around your husband and children and protect them and keep them.

Sincerely,

*Your cousin Linda##imported-begin##Linda Kellerman
