

Charles N. Gregory Jr.

October 8, 1925 - December 19, 2005

Charles Nichols Gregory Jr., 80, died 12/19/05, in Bloomfield. The son of Mabelle Wander and Charles Nichols Gregory he was born on Oct.8, 1925, in Hartford and lived in West Hartford most of his life. He was predeceased by his wife Mary Pulford Gregory and his brother George Featherstonhaugh Gregory. He graduated from Kingswood School and Yale University with two degrees. He served in the navy during World War 11.

After graduation he was employed as an engineer in the aerospace industry before founding his own general contracting business. During the next thirty years he built over 180 homes and additions in the West Hartford and Farmington Valley area.

An avid sailor, he owned an Alden Schooner ?Talisman? for many years on which he raced in heritage events. He also sailed extensively in the Caribbean during the winter vacations. He was a past member of the Baldwin Yacht Club, the Off Soundings Club, and the American Schooner Association. He served as commodore of the Schooner Association and received their award for his contributions to traditional sailing.

He was a member of the Hartford Golf Club, the Old Guard of West Hartford and the 20th Century Club. He was active in the Meals-On-Wheels program. He belonged to Asylum Hill Congregational Church for more than 59 years. He is survived by his son and daughter-in-law Patricia and Charles N. Gregory III of Andover MA., his daughter Cathy Gregory of Palo Alto, CA. and six grandchildren: Charles IV, Oliver, and Alice Gregory and Liz, Dory, and Nina Gannes.

A celebration of his life will be held on Jan 7th at 11:00 a.m. at Duncaster, 30 Loeffler Rd, Bloomfield. Memorial contributions may be made the Asylum Hill Congregational Church 814 Asylum Ave. Hartford CT 06105.

Tribute Wall

“ Chuck Gregory had a kind and gentle soul. I knew and admired him for nearly 30 years I will miss him greatly.

Stuart Gannes##imported-begin##Stuart Gannes##imported-end##

---

March 07, 2006 at 12:00 AM