

Constance "Connie" Courtin

June 29, 1906 - April 20, 2011

Constance Siragusa Courtin, 104, the widow of Franklyn A. Courtin, died Wednesday April 20, 2011 in West Hartford. Born in Brooklyn, NY, the daughter of the late Stephen and Nina Lunetta Siragusa, she had lived in Valley Stream, NY, moving to West Hartford 15 years ago. She began her working career as a legal secretary, later working for the Furness/Withey Steamship Co. as a secretary. Connie loved literature, spoke four languages, and was an avid cook, frequently entertaining in her home. She was generous with her love, time and talents, and thus leaves a legacy of strong faith, loving friends and good food. She is survived by her daughter Susan Fellingham and her husband Steve of Bloomfield, four granddaughters; Christine Coburn and husband Christopher, Colleen Fellingham and Dan Kilian, Kerrie Andrews and husband Brett and Stephanie Fellingham. Her great grandchildren Alexandra, Samantha, and Lila Coburn, Riley and Porter Andrews also survive her. She was predeceased by her eight brothers and sisters. Funeral services will be private in New York.

Tribute Wall

“ Susan and family

Connie was one of the finest and kindest persons I had the pleasure of calling a friend. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family in this time of sorrow.

Fondly,

Karen##imported-begin##Karen Barnaby##imported-end##

April 25, 2011 at 12:00 AM