

Cynthia Beavers

September 5, 2006

Cynthia Van Note Beavers, 66, beloved wife of Allen Beavers, of West Hartford, died Monday September 25, 2006. Born in Chickasaw, AL, the daughter of the late Norman and Eleanor Willey Van Note, she was raised in New Orleans and graduated from Fournier High School in 1958. She received her Bachelors of Arts degree from Boston University in 1962 and moved to West Hartford in 1966. Cynthia worked for the West Hartford Board of Education as a secretary at Webster Hill and King Philip Schools, retiring in 1995. After retiring she went back to school to become a Christian Science Nurse. She was an active member of the First Church of Christ Scientists in Hartford, and a member of the D.A.R. She was passionate about music, theater and was an avid sports fan. Cynthia was a clarinetist in the Manchester Community Orchestra, and was a member of the Music Club of Hartford. Cynthia traveled extensively with her husband. Besides her husband of 46 years, she is survived by her two children and their spouses, Cyndi and Roy Maston of Merrimack, NH, Scott and Patricia Beavers of Tunbridge, VT; and three grandchildren, Alyssa, Bailee and Shelby Maston. A Christian Science memorial service will be held on Sunday, October 8, at 2 p.m. in the West Hartford United Methodist Church, 1358 New Britain Ave., West Hartford. In lieu of flowers, donations in her memory may be made to First Church of Christ Scientist, 235 Scarborough St., Hartford, CT 06105 or Chestnut Hill Benevolent Association, 910 Boylston St., Chestnut Hill, MA 02467.
