

Daniel E. Lynch Jr., Esq

February 12, 1960 - November 10, 2013

Lynch, Daniel E., Jr.

Daniel E. Lynch, Jr., Esq. of Simsbury, Connecticut died suddenly on Sunday November 10, 2013. Dan was born on February 12, 1960 to Daniel E. Lynch, Sr., Esq. and Alice Walsh Lynch. He attended Northwest Catholic High School and graduated from Providence College, Summa Cum Laude in 1982. He went on to earn his JD from Western New England School of Law and his LLM in tax law from New York University. Dan met the love of his life, Amy Randall Lynch, at Old Lyme Shores and Northwest Catholic. Danny and Amy have been inseparable since they were 16 years old – a fairytale love story of 37 years. Danny and Amy married in 1986 and were blessed with three children: Daniel Warren Lynch, 23, currently of Danbury, CT; Kathleen Casey Lynch, 21 a senior at Providence College; and Amy Margaret Lynch, 16, a junior at Simsbury High School. Dan was the embodiment of the term “family man”. Although always available for others, his most treasured time was with his family - coaching, playing hoops, golfing, boating, biking, or just watching sports and funny movies. He cherished every moment he spent with Amy and the kids.

Danny was unfailingly devoted to God, family and friends. He was a loving and extraordinary husband, father, son, brother, brother -in -law, uncle, nephew and friend. Dan was universally loved and admired and was the constant Rock for his large extended family and for so many friends. Dan’s charm, sense of humor and integrity were unparalleled. He humbly used his countless gifts to help others manage the seemingly unmanageable. His infectious and generous spirit left everyone he met blessed to have been in his presence. He was a dedicated and longtime parishioner at St. Timothy's Church and an exceptionally brilliant and caring attorney who was dedicated to his clients.

In addition to his wife and children, Dan is survived by his parents, of West Hartford, CT; his sister Susan Lynch Galeota and fiancé Michael Giliberto of West Hartford, CT; his sister Patricia Fagan, MD and husband Christopher Fagan, Esq. of Farmington, CT; and his brother Kevin W. Lynch, of West Hartford, CT. Dan was a brother to each of his brothers and sisters-in-law: Lawrence J. Neureither, DDS and Mary E. Randall, DMD of Simsbury, CT; Margaret R. Brodeur, Esq. and Christopher Brodeur of Glastonbury, CT; Patricia R. Taylor and John Taylor of West Hartford, CT; and Christine R. Collins, Esq. and Matt Collins of West Hartford, CT and he had a special relationship with each of his 19 nieces and nephews.

There are no words to express the cavernous void created by Dan's passing. Anyone who knew Dan must be saddened by his death, and yet there is a joy to accompany that sorrow- the rare joy occasioned by a life of such excellence and by reflection on what its reward must be.

The family will receive friends on Friday November 15, 2013, from 4-8 p.m., at the Church of St. Timothy, 1116 North Main Street, West Hartford. A Mass of Christian burial will be celebrated at 10:00 AM Saturday November 16, 2013, at St. Timothy Church. Burial will follow at Mount St. Benedict Cemetery, Bloomfield. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Church of St. Timothy or Loaves & Fishes Ministries Inc., 646 Prospect Ave., Hartford, CT 06105. Online expressions of sympathy may be made at www.molloyfuneralhome.com

“ I was just going to refer a friend to speak with Dan and found this. I am deeply saddened by this news. Dan fought vigorously for years when I lost custody of my daughter. Without him I'd never have her back, I know it. He taught me how to grow into such an amazing person to fight the battle myself. After 4 years of him not giving up I gained custody back. He stayed in tough to make sure everything was okay and was always there when I needed advice. I am so sorry to hear of this. So much time has passed but people have to know what an amazing person he was. My prayers for the family and friends.

“ Dear Amy and the Lynch Family,
I am deeply saddened to learn of Danny's untimely passing. A true gentleman in all senses of the word. In addition to knowing Dan since high school, I was fortunate to have relied on his legal expertise a few years ago. Without words, it was clear that in addition to representing my family as clients Danny was also working as a friend. He helped us through a difficult time after my father passed, and I wish that I could in some small way comfort you with the knowledge that his love and impact on this world continues with every person that was fortunate enough to know him. God bless you and give you strength in this most difficult of times.

“ Dear Lynch Family,

I had the pleasure of meeting Attorney Dan Lynch, Jr. when my husband and I purchased our first home 20yrs ago. From that day on, he always said; if you need help with anything let me know. Dan has helped us with many situations. He was a very thoughtful and humble person. When my mother was diagnosed with Dementia 3yrs ago, Attorney Dan Lynch, Jr. walked me through every step to get the right help for my mom. He use to call every now and then to see how my mom was doing. Because of him, my mom is still home today. I will forever be grateful to him.

I am saddened by his sudden passing and for you all to know you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Amy and the entire Lynch family,

I had the priviledge of being one of Dan's roommates during our freshman year at Providence College. I can still see him walking into our room on the first day. I even remember meeting Amy once or twice during that year. Dan was a very special guy. He was a great roommate, loaded with charisma and a great sense of humor. He was liked and respected by everyone.

I am deeply saddened by his passing and I want you all to know that you are in my thoughts and prayers during this very difficult time.

“ Dear Amy and Family,

I was deeply saddened to learn of Dan's passing. He was a great lawyer and wonderful man. We shared greetings just a few months ago at the Manchester court where he was so ably helping a client in difficult circumstances. As I remember both of you from our years at WNECLS, you were so clearly a beautiful couple blessed with an abiding love. Dan always had a smile and kind word for everyone. The legal community has lost a great champion. I wish you all peace and contentment in your bountiful memories of such an exemplary husband, father, friend and advocate. His counsel will be missed.

“ Dear Beth and Family,
I knew Dan for 4 years at Providence College and had the pleasure of meeting you and your family at PC daughter a year or 2 ago. I spoke to Dan for a healthy 20 minutes like it was 1978-1982. The best 4 years of my life were at PC because of the classmates I met like Dan. He was one of the few people in my life that I place in a special category.....if you didn't like Dan then you needed to find a mirror and examine yourself. We took business's classes and played hoops together. He always had a genuine smile on his face accompanied with a positive attitude. I'm saddened for you and your family, but I know Dan is now teaching everybody "upstairs" about how to smile more often and enjoy what you have.

“ Dear Amy Beth and family, I was so shocked and saddened to hear of your terrible loss. Dan was so wonderful to my mom and dad throughout my mom's long illness and the two of you have been so supportive of my dad as he mourned the loss of his wife and then his sister. I wish I could be there with all of you but we are caring for a new grand-baby! I wanted you to know that you are all in our prayers and we will add dan's name to our parish book of remembrance this weekend. We will cherish our memories of Danny as the sweet, kind and generous man who always saw the good in everything and everyone. May God bless you with His peace.

“ To Amy and the wonderful family of Dan Lynch,

I have known Dan since his junior year at Northwest Catholic. As a young man he was a most talented student and athlete. His intelligence and work ethic were most impressive and his achievements in both areas speak for themselves. It was my privelege to work with Dan both as a teacher and coach. If I had to single out one attribute to best explain his character it would be his ability to be the ultimate " team player ". He was totally unselfish despite his abilities and without ego which is rare to find in high school athletes. It was as if even then he was always able to see the " big picture ".

As the years passed I would see Dan and Amy at St. Timothys for Sunday Mass. He would always offer me a big smile and a most warm handshake. I watched the children grow and saw how caringly you both guided them before during and after Church. Dan and I would often meet when he played in the NWC annual golf tournament. There would be anecdotes about the kids, work, and life in general. Everything he ever said was totally upbeat, positive, and optimistic. There was no darkness in Dan at all, just a love for life and the gifts that life had brought to him. After young Dan enrolled at Northwest we would chat at sporting events and other functions. He would seek me out at parents night even though I was not teaching any of the kids. There was always that friendly smile that let me know that he was glad to see me and it just made me feel good.

Amy, Dans' passing deeply saddens me. I wish that I could be there to tell you these things in person but time and distance make that impossible. Please know that I will always remember him fondly and that he, you, and your family will be in my thoughts and prayers. God bless you all,

“ To the Lynch Family
I am so deeply saddened to learn of Dan's passing. Dan represented me in a complicated case and was always available to listen to my "passionate" arguments and viewpoints on the inequities of certain events in the case, all the while patiently offering sound advice. When I think of Dan, the words that come to mind are; trust, integrity, kindness, patience and humor. My thoughts are with his family and may their strong faith help them through this time of sadness and loss.

“ The passing of such a great man at such a time...a man so accomplished with so many gifts that he humbly shared with grace, a man so sincere and genuine, unpretentious and forthright...will always be unfathomable to those who knew him at all. I was fortunate to have Dan as a lifelong friend commencing on the basketball court as kids. His generous spirit began by passing me the ball. We had a special friendship from that time forward and I am forever grateful for that. I know of his skills firsthand on the basketball court and also later in Superior Court. He had a great wit, was always good natured, always ready to help at a moment's notice. We shared a unique friendship that covered many bases. It was the kind of friendship that is defined by the knowledge that your friend would be there for you at any hour, under any condition, in any circumstance...no matter what, that was Dan. If you had a hurdle to traverse it also became his hurdle. If he needed to roll up his sleeves for you, he would be there without a shirt. He is a friend to us all because from the first you knew that this is a good person, a well meaning person, a person with not a bad bone in his body. He possessed a great intellect and whenever possible discussed and shared with me his concerns about the world at large and its future for his children. On the other hand his wit and readiness to make light of any situation, within reason of course, together with the fact that he laughed at all of my jokes, yes all of them, without reservation, made the deal even better. We had as much fun exchanging one liners as we did discussing any legal matter in hand, politics and/or current affairs. Dan was dedicated and widely respected and possessed a tremendous work ethic and tenacity. However, he did not win respect by telling people what he stood for, he won their respect by living it, by example, by his actions. We worked closely together and started out at the same time in business and in all the years from perhaps age 22 forward he was my attorney and above all, my treasured and humble friend. There is no way to articulate the magnitude and inequity of the loss for Dan's wife Amy, and children, Daniel, Kathleen and Amy, and simply everyone who knew him. Like many I can never replace him and words simply cannot do justice to the injustice of him not being present in all our lives. The loss is staggering, incalculable...unspeakable. Let's be grateful for the synchronicity of great qualities which coincided in one great person, Dan Lynch, Jr. Let's be grateful for our friend Dan, a practitioner of law and a practitioner of humanity. In keeping with the spirit that defines him, as impossible and difficult as it may be, he would not want anyone to linger in sorrow. My heart goes out to the entire Lynch family, relatives and all friends of Dan. I am forever grateful to call him my friend.
