“ to the family of daniel ramanos

i wish only that you will someday find peace in the loss of your son daniel. my son ryan o'neil went to heaven on march 22, 2004. i still feel the pain that you are going thru now. some days it is better than others. i keep going on thru his friends that have adopted me in my time of grief. why did we have to experience this great loss of life at such a young age. my son is also on molloy funeral web site. i am so thankful for this web site and how they allowed us to continue to write notes about our love ones and his friends can still write notes to him.

God bless you and in remembrance of daniel i too will keep him in my prayers and ask ryan to greet him in heaven.

bear hug, bear hug as my son always gave to everyone

“ Dear Mr. & Mrs. Romanos

I'm sorry to hear of Dan. I got to know Dan though Scouts. He awlays brought life to our meetings and hikes. He was one of those great kids that we all enjoyed being around and was always ready to help. I remember when he started working out with weights, he was so proud of beating me in arm wrestlingI did dare wrestle with him for I knew he would beat me.I saw Dan influnced a number of the younger Scouts in such a possive way. I'm proud to have known Dan.

May god be with you though these times. If there is anything I can do please call me at 869-205-6582##imported-begin##Dean Bush##imported-end##

“ I was Danny's music teacher at Norfeldt for several years and my wife was Danny's music teacher at STMS. A light has gone out in our lives. We are profoundly saddened by Danny's death. He was one of the most musical and sensitive violinists I have taught.

Danny loved to come into my office and talk about music and the outdoors. He loved my fishing joke book. Oh, that I could turn back time to those days and tell him what a special child he was. May God grant him peace.

We extend our deepest sympathy not only to the Romanos family but to all who will miss Danny too.

“ Dan was one of those people, whose smile could light up a room, and even though he wasn't a close friend of mine, he still had a tremendous impact on myself and anyone else he would meet. By looking at the number of people who have shown their respect towards Dan and his family in a time like this just expresses the same genuine fact; that no one will ever forget about him and that he will continue to live on through everything that surrounds us in our everyday lives. Dan will surely be missed and he and his family will be kept in my prayers forever.##imported-begin##Anonymous##imported-end##

“ Danny was my cousin. When I heard about what had happened I was very shocked. I never thought he would do that he just wasn't that type of kid. It affected me so much to hear that he was gone. I still carry that pain with me today. I didn't get to see Danny a lot but when I did he was always happy and we would joke around and talk. I miss him very much and I still pray for him everyday. I pray especially for my godmother, Aunt Jane and my Uncle Lou. I pray that they will continue to be strong. I wish we could of stayed longer with them and I was glad to hear that we will be visiting this summer. My most recent memory of Danny was when he came up for cousin Michelle's wedding and I was surprised how much we had both grown up. I remember when Aunt Jane and him came to Buffalo and she took us to Niagara Falls and we had gotten lost on the way home. I remember going to North Carolina and us being real little just hanging out. I wish I could of had more memories with Danny but, the ones I do I have I will always remember. “ Dear Romanos Family:

I knew Dan mostly through scouts, he was the epitome of a scout, and what every person should strive to be. Dan did my joining requirements with me to officially make me a part of Troop 146, and there was not one person in the Troop who wasn't his friend. He brought light to every situation and he was the kind of person that everybody wanted to be around, people gravitated to him because of his upbeat personality, and positive outlook on all situations. Words cannot describe the feeling that I am experiencing in the wake of this tragedy. Dan was an amazing person who's life promised to be long and successful, he never struck me as a candidate for such an early death. Dan will always be missed, your family and Dan will always be in my prayers and thoughts.

God bless your family and Dan, and may the lord help you through this difficult time.

“ Dear Dan,
Last year we had such a hilarious and amazing time together in Ms McManus's class...remember the pinball dance you taught Steph and I, and when you danced it in front of our entire class for our presentation? When you dressed up as Paris Hilton, with Stephanie's white mini skirt and my sister's stuffed dog, that was probably the funniest thing I have ever seen, and even thinking about it now makes me crack up. Speeding around in your Mini during various Spanish projects was insane, almost as insane as that time Ms McManus asked you for a ride home...?
I miss you and those times so much, and I wish you were here now so we could laugh about last year together, but even though you aren't, I'll cherish these memories forever.
Rest In Peace, see you in Heaven.

“ Jane and Louis and family,
Please accept our deepest sympathies. We knew Dan since way back when he was in grade school, a classmate and playmate of our son. We keep you and Dan in our thoughts and prayers.

Sincerely,

“ To the Romanos Family,
I had the pleasure of having Dan as a student while he was at STMS. His kindness, talent and gentle nature made a lasting impression upon me. He was a wonderful young man. I am so profoundly sorry for your loss. My prayers are with you during this difficult time.

Sincerely,
