“ I was so sorry to hear of David's passing. David sat in front of me in Mr. Foster's English class at Hall. I will always remember him leaning back in his chair onto my desk and just hanging out making funny remarks that even Mr. Foster would crack up about. David was always smiling and kept the whole class coming back for more.

I was also a Hall swimmer with Betsy and on John's team. I'm so sorry for their loss. David will be remembered fondly from the Raisner family.

“ Dear McClure Family,

I am very sorry for your loss. I knew David since I was 5 years old. Dave was a good man, with a good heart. He was loyal, had integrity and my respect. He changed the way I look at my own life and I'll never forget him, ever.

I was told that people who have had the hardest lives are closest to God when they pass. David is closer than I can imagine. I love you Dave!!!! I love you too Ms. McClure!!

Love Always,
