

Dean Carlson

October 20, 2006

Dean Carlson, 65, of West Hartford, died Friday, October 20, 2006, from injuries sustained in an accident. Born in Terryville, the son of the late George and Gertrude McCollum Carlson, he made his home in Simsbury and West Hartford. Dean was a graduate of Syracuse University, served in the US Air Force, worked in the insurance industry and currently for AIDS Project Hartford as an outreach worker. Dean is survived by his co-workers, his best friend Bill Hardy of West Hartford, and many acquaintances and friends from Hall's Market in West Hartford. The funeral services will be Thursday, November 9, 2006, at 10:00 a.m. at St. Patrick St Anthony Church, 285 Church St., Hartford. A visitation will be held at the church at 9:00 a.m. Burial will follow in Fairview Cemetery, West Hartford. There are no calling hours. Online messages of sympathy and remembrance may be made at www.mollyfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

“ Dean was a dear friend and someone I knew through tough times. He will be sorely missed by all those he touched, especially the homeless and chemically addicted. Never have I seen a man more accepting of those who society has rejected. He embraced and respected everyone. May God rest his soul. Brian Baker assistant Director South Park Inn.##imported-begin##Brian Baker##imported-end##

November 08, 2006 at 12:00 AM