“ It is with much sadness that I learned of the passing of Louise. It seems only awhile since she came to our cottage for a visit with my sister, Mary and I.

“ My deepest sympathy in your loss. I grew up with Louise from birth through high school. She was a good friend & I have wonderful memories of time spent with her in our youth. May your memories help you through this sad time. Joyce Iles

“ Mrs. Culbert was my fourth grade teacher at Dwight Elementary, in Fairfield, many years ago. I remember her very well. She was an excellent teacher, tough (which you only appreciate much later in life!), but kind and really terrific. When I told my mom about her passing she said, "she inspired you". I vividly remember that school year, and especially Mrs. Culbert having us read Where The Red Fern Grows--a book and movie I have recommended to many people over the many years! I send my sincere condolences to her family for this great loss of their mother/wife/sister/grandmother/aunt/friend and for me, a wonderful and memorable teacher!
